St. Patrick's Day Parade
GREATER NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

2023 PARADE RULES & REGULATIONS

ANY QUESTIONS OR CONCERNS, PLEASE CONTACT:

Patrick Smith, coordinator@stpatricksdayparade.org or (203)-494-0640

Written requests may be sent to:
Coordinator, Associated Irish Societies, P.O. Box 9078, New Haven, CT 06532

Stopping along the route: Stopping to perform along the route is not permitted, unless otherwise authorized by the Parade Coordinator prior to the parade. Any units stopping and performing in front of the reviewing stand or along the parade route without prior authorization will be automatically disqualified from the competition and forfeit contractual honorariums. Please ensure that all of your routines or performances can be executed whilst marching. There should be no participants exiting the line of march and into the crowd.

Competitive Judging: The official judges for the marching and musical competitions are from the Northeast Judging Association. Judges are located at the reviewing stand on Church Street in front of New Haven City Hall. Units are judged according to categories and will compete for a variety of awards. The names of award winners will be published in the "New Haven Register" newspaper. Award recipients are presented with a commemorative plaque during the Parade Awards Night to be held in Spring 2023. Be aware, in the past, judges have deducted points for lack of uniformity, excessive spacing between units, blocking spectators by handlers, and flag code violations!

End of Parade Route: The last leg of the Parade Route concludes on Grove Street at Orange Street. Marching units are to disperse on Elm and Orange Streets, not Church Street. Please do not impede the flow of the parade participants by congregating on the path alongside Church Street.

Late Arrivals: All units should arrive & check in with division Marshal at their designated staging areas no later than 12:30 p.m. on Parade Day. If your unit arrives late for staging, your unit will be placed at the end of the parade (no exceptions).

No Candy or Giveaways: Per the order of the City of New Haven; No items such as necklaces, candy, toys or flyers are to be thrown from automobiles, trucks, floats or distributed from marchers to parade viewers. Under no circumstances should anything be thrown or handed out from a vehicle or from parade participants. This is a safety risk for parade participants as well as parade spectators. Units found to be throwing items will run the risk of disqualification and may forfeit contractual honorariums.

Signage: The presence of placards, banners or other devices including pamphlets intended to spread propaganda, political views or to embarrass any group or unit of marchers are prohibited. All commercial
